Introduction

Halifax Hall is a comfortable 4 star 'boutique' hotel with landscaped gardens set on the west side of Sheffield within the University's Endcliffe Village. The conference sessions will be mostly located in its Ennis Room. A different venue will be used for the first main day of the conference (Tuesday 19th): this is the nineteenth-century Channing Hall on centrally located Surrey Street in Sheffield. Channing Hall is linked to the Unitarian Upper Chapel on Norfolk Street and is named after the noted 19th century minister, Dr William Ellery Channing.

Cost includes conference fee of £50 per person, accommodation, breakfast and dinner at Halifax Hall

Single: £410

Couple: £610
